

NEW! URCD272 THE ORIGINAL CRANE RIVER JAZZ BAND with KEN COLYER: Reunited
1 CD £12.99

The Crane River Jazz Band is one of the most revered jazz bands of the 20th Century. There is so little material of this amazing band so Upbeat is delighted to issue this. In 1949 they took the UK by storm appearing on BBC TV and Studio 51 in Leicester Square and in 1951 played at the newly opened Royal Festival Hall. In 1972 the Cranes re-formed and their first London appearance was at the 100 Club in Oxford Street where this CD was recorded. The result was sheer joyousness and almost relaxed telepathic teamwork. All the players are world renowned in their own right. Ken Colyer trumpet/cornet/vocal, Sonny Morris trumpet/vocal, Monty Sunshine clarinet, Pat Hawes piano, John R T Davies trombone/alto sax, Ben Marshall piano, Julian Davies string bass, Colin Bowden drums.

NEW! URCD273 JACK TEAGARDEN / EARL HINES – All Stars In Concert Volume 2
1 CD £12.99

Volume 2 of this fabulous 1957 Manchester concert by a specially assembled group starring two icons of Jazz. The concert was presented by The National Jazz Federation, and with the obvious exception of Max Kaminsky, every musician had previously been a member of Louis Armstrong's All Stars. The promoters thought they would appeal to the British public in the same way Satchmo himself had on his first post-war visit the previous year – and judging by the rapturous audience agreed! Volume 1 (URCD258) has quickly sold out its first pressing and joined our all-time fastest sellers!

NEW! JIMMY DORSEY'S DORSEYLAND JAZZ BAND - Live in the USA 1950
£12.99 each JCCD3035 Volume 1 JCCD3128 Volume 2

In the early 1930s, Jimmy Dorsey was the star of the Great Ted Lewis Band. He and his brother Tommy then went on to greatness in the Swing Era, both leading successful big bands. Both bands had smaller 'Dixieland' bands within the big bands – and Jimmy's Dorseyland Jazz Band was one of the hottest dixieland jazz bands ever! The tracks on this CD are from New York City Airshots recorded live at the Hotel Statler in 1950.

Artists include Milton Batiste, Tuba Fats, Sammy Rimington, Colin Bray, Emil Mark and Sadie Goodson-Cola.

NEW! FADCD2061 The TOMMY LADNIER Collection 1923-1939 2 CDs £14.99

Tommy Ladnier was a trumpeter and cornetist who was active in the early years of jazz and recorded prolifically during the 1920s and early '30s making some very important recordings with the likes of Sidney Bechet, Fletcher Henderson, Ma Rainey and Mezz Mezzrow in the late '30s before his sudden and tragically early death in 1939 at the age of 39. Regarded as an exciting and powerful soloist as well as an excellent ensemble player, in some ways he provided a stylistic bridge between King Oliver and Louis Armstrong. This great value 48-track 2-CD set draws from the 180 or more sides he recorded during his career, selecting material which provides a showcase for his often overlooked and under-estimated talent in the context of some of the best jazz of his time.

NEW! RTR4296 THE ORIGINAL DIXIELAND JAZZ BAND – Tiger Rag Their 25 Finest 1917-1923 1 CD £12.99

The Original Dixieland Jazz Band was the first band to wax the sound of jazz, thereby providing a blueprint which others sought to emulate. Although all of the recordings on this centenary tribute were cut in the acoustic era, the technology involved was sufficiently advanced to capture their sound, both individually and collectively. Moreover, many of the numbers which they chose to record, some of which they'd composed themselves, became jazz standards. The band had a considerable influence, not only in America, but also in England, which they visited in 1919 & 1920. Taken as a whole this compilation projects a vivid account of the raw energy that captured listeners a century ago. The liner note comprises a detailed discography and a historical and musical appreciation by trumpeter Digby Fairweather.

BY POPULAR DEMAND! JCCD3022 THE CHRIS BLOUNT NEW ORLEANS JAZZ BAND Chris! 1 CD £12.99

Chris Blount began his career in the 1950s, but this current recording dates from 1996. All the players on this disc are fine in their own right, but as an ensemble they are exceptional, and the effect is wonderful. Derek Winters' strong, solid bedrock trumpet lead gives the band punch and drive. He is a marvellous player - but Chris Blount is what this CD is all about! In the style of George Lewis, he is a real New Orleans style master. Chris has taken this band across Europe and is a particular favourite in Sweden. Although he has never been to New Orleans, New Orleans has been to him for a very long time! Full personnel are Chris Blount clarinet, Derek Winters trumpet, Ron Radford trombone, Barry Grummett piano, Tony Peatman banjo, Harry Slater string bass and Steve Upton drums.

JCCD3100 THE CHURCH ALLEY IRREGULARS Volume 2 - Reprise! featuring Brian Carrick & Norman Thatcher 1 CD £12.99

Following on the success of their first recording, both sessions on this CD were recorded in February 2004. They have been arranged to present a sort of club-style evening of jazz with the bigger of the two groups doing two short sets divided by an 'intermission' set by the quartet. The 'Irregulars' feature Norman Thatcher trumpet, Geoff Cole trombone, Brian Carrick and Tony Pyke reeds, Malcolm Hogarth piano, Malcolm Hurrell banjo, Annie Hawkins string bass and Dion Cochrane drums. The intermission set features The Brian Carrick Heritage Jazz Quartet where Brian is joined by Malcolm Hurrell, Bill Cole and Malc Murphy. Volume 1 is on JCCD3098 at £12.99.

JCCD3049 PAUL BARBARIN'S ONWARD BRASS BAND In Concert 1968 1 CD £12.99

The Onward Brass Band name has an historic place in New Orleans musical history, dating back to the very origins of jazz. When the band marched triumphantly back from the Spanish/American war in 1899 it featured Isadore Barbarin. The current edition featured Paul Barbarin. This is a good time band playing songs familiar to all fans of traditional jazz and even Dixieland. It even had a banjo! The band sent its fans into fits of ecstasy at this concert for the Connecticut Traditional Jazz Club in July 1968. Personnel were Paul Barbarin with Ernest Cagnolatti, Alvin Alcorn. Wendell Eugene, Clement Tervalon, Louis Cottrell, Danny Barker, Freddie Kohlman and Jerry Green. Not to be missed!

JCCD3120 LOUIS ARMSTRONG & HIS ALL STARS – A Vancouver Concert 1951 1 CD £12.99

This live concert was recorded in Vancouver in January 1951 - it was a sell-out show and the audience loved every second. This is one of the rarest of the all-star bands because it features drummer Cozy Cole who only played with the band for a couple of years. The full band line up is astonishing - Louis is joined by Jack Teagarden, Barney Bigard, Earl Hines, Arvell Shaw, Cozy Cole and Velma Middleton - so sit back and enjoy! 17 terrific tracks lasting 70 minutes.
